Alone At Last

Chapter 1 by Sam I am

On one stormy night, I walked alone down a narrow street. The wind blew hard and the lightning flashed all around me. I couldn't believe what I saw. I saw him. He was just standing there leaning against the wall looking right at me. At that moment I knew, I would never be alone again.

Chapter 2 by N8

He took a step forward. Thunder rumbled. He took another. Lightning traveled across the sky above me. He stared me in the face, no emotion in his eyes. His eyes. Black. Completely black. My heart pounded and my palms began to sweat. He took another step. He was approximately 20 feet away now.

I saw his lips twinge. He opened his mouth, as if to talk.
